

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements .....	v
Editors' foreword: analogies and the cruise industry .....	vii
Table of Contents .....	xi
PART A: Market &amp; Trends .....	1
1.0 Customer deception in the cruise industry .....	3
Miriam Crisco Schmenner
2.0 Seasonality: A factor of crisis or development in cruise tourism? .....	25
Tihomir Luković &amp; Katja Božić
3.0 Evaluating cruise demand forecasting practices: A Delphi approach .....	39
Hannah Kollwitz &amp; Alexis Papathanassis
4.0 The Development and meaning of vessel flags in the cruise industry .....	57
Cordula Boy
PART B: Destinations &amp; Sustainability.....	77
5.0 Consumer behaviour in the traditional cruise market and implications for the sustainability of ocean cruising.....	79
Martin Cholwill
6.0 Assessing the environmental impact of anchoring cruise liners in Falmouth bay .....	93
Sarah Tuck, John Dinwoodie, Harriet Knowles &amp; James Benhin
PART C: Processes &amp; Practices.....	107
7.0 Ensuring safe and sustainable cruise operations.....	109
Paul Wright
8.0 Safety perceptions in the cruise sector: A Grounded Theory approach.....	127
Margret Cordesmeyer &amp; Alexis Papathanassis

9.0	Cruise passengers' complaints: an analysis of online reviews .....	147
	Mandy Aggett
10.0	Influences of celebrity chefs on cruise fine dining experiences.....	163
	Patsy Morgan &amp; Christopher Edwards
PART D: Human Resources .....		177
11.0	Staffing the cruise industry in 2020: Exploring solutions .....	179
	Caroline Wiscombe, John McGirl, &amp; Michael Piontek
12.0	Crew retention .....	199
	Wolfgang Lukas
13.0	The Maritime Labour Convention 2006: An instrument to improve social responsibility in the cruise industry .....	207
	Petra C. Milde
PART E: Cruise Education &amp; Research .....		225
14.0	Critical cruise research: in the age of performativity .....	227
	Michael P. Vogel
15.0	Plotting a course in cruise management education .....	245
	Ate de Groot	